

I listen to K-Love on a daily basis and it has helped me in many ways; emotionally and spiritually!!!!

I do not want to see something encouraging to our youth and community be replaced; we need this. This is a great way to reach out to people who do not know or understand who God or higher power is.